

The following document is an excerpt from a presentation given by the Tualatin Valley Water District comparing large Oregon water district rates. Large cities with very dense development generally have less costs per user because infrastructure can serve a larger number of users/mile of pipe

Typical Northwest Monthly Residential Calculated Average (7.0 kgal)

¹Tualatin Valley Water District (TVWD) serves Beaverton, portions of Hillsboro and Tigard