NPD MEDIA RELEASE

05/04/2012 7:00 a.m.

Incident: Newport Police Department Compliance Checks

Location: Newport, Oregon

Date: Friday, 05/11/2012

Details: On 05/11/2012, the Newport Police Department conducted alcohol sales compliance checks on thirteen local businesses. During these checks, underage decoys were sold alcohol at two businesses--Bay Street Market on Bay Blvd., and Newport Chevron at 15th Street and Hwy 101. Citations were issued to the persons making the sales; OLCC was notified.

The Newport Police Department will continue to conduct compliance check operations during the coming months until 100% of all business that sell alcohol have been checked at least once. We would also like to remind businesses that, although we routinely announce our compliance check operations through the local media, checks may be made without public notification
