2.11 LIBRARY OF THINGS

OVERVIEW

The Library of Things is a collection of non-traditional library items that complement the Newport Public Library's mission to provide equitable access to materials, entertainment, information and technology services of the highest quality to our diverse multigenerational community. Patrons who borrow a Library of Things item agree to abide by the Newport Public Library's Library of Things lending guidelines.

TYPES OF MATERIALS INCLUDED IN COLLECTION

The purpose of the Library of Things collection is to provide diverse opportunities for learning and engagements. The Library of Things collection is intended to be comprehensive and the Library is limited by a finite amount of storage space. A list of items in the Library of Things will be maintained on the library website and a catalog of items will be available for viewing at the Library.

PROCUREMENT OF MATERIALS

The Library of Things collection is developed and managed to meet the cultural, informational, educational, and recreational needs of library patrons in Newport.

The Library's staff will select materials based on the needs of library patrons. The Library welcomes input from the community concerning the collection. A form for purchase suggestions will be available online as well as in paper format. All suggestions are evaluated using the same selection criteria as for other materials and are not automatically added to the collection.

The Library can accept a limited number of donations, which must be presented as outright gifts. Donated materials are received with the understanding that they are subject to the same selection, evaluation, and withdrawal criteria as material acquired for purchase.

EVALUATION OF COLLECTIONS

The Library will use circulation data and community suggestions to guide future selection for the Library of Things collection. Items that do not circulate and items in poor condition will be withdrawn from the Library collection.

LIBRARY'S USE OF THINGS

The Library reserves the right to take a Library of Things item out of circulation temporarily to use for Library purposes (workshops, demonstrations, or other programs) or to repair a damaged item

GUIDELINES FOR BORROWING AND USE

The Library has sole discretion in making these decisions. Responsibility for a child's use of Library materials, regardless of format or content lies with the parent or guardian, not with the Library.

5.8 PROGRAM POLICY

The Library is committed to fostering community engagement by offering diverse and inclusive programs that support its mission to inform, educate, and inspire. Library-sponsored programs aim to enhance the community's access to resources, promote cultural awareness, and provide both entertaining and educational experiences.

Programs are free and open to all members of the public, with no restrictions based on age, gender, race, ethnicity, background, beliefs, or abilities. The Library strives to offer a wide variety of programs that reflect the diverse interests and needs of our community.

Program presenters are required to submit a proposal that includes a brief program description, relevant supporting materials (e.g., books, brochures, photos, videos), and any references or reviews that support the content.

Proposals must be submitted at least 45 days prior to the proposed program date to ensure adequate time for review, planning, and promotion.

All programs must align with the Library's mission, goals, budget, and scheduling priorities. The final decision to sponsor a program rests with the Library and City Community Engagement Director.

All promotional materials, including press releases, flyers, and advertisements, must be approved by the Library and City Community Engagement Director before distribution.

To support the Library's efforts to foster literacy, creativity, and culture, books, recordings, and writings may be sold after library-sponsored programs, but must be completed within one hour following the event.

We ask for your cooperation in maintaining an environment conducive to enjoyable use of the Library for all.

While at the Library we encourage you to:

5.10.1 Unaccompanied Adults and Teens

The Children's Area of the Library is reserved for children, their parents or responsible adult caregivers. Adults and teens unaccompanied by a child, may only enter the Children's Area to obtain books or other children's materials. Extended browsing, reading or loitering in the Children's Area by unaccompanied adults and teens is not allowed. Out of concern for the safety of children, it is Library policy to ask unaccompanied adults and teens to move to another area of the Library.

5.10.2 Enforcement

When a library staff person becomes aware that any patron is violating a library rule, the staff person shall take appropriate enforcement measures. Appropriate enforcement measures include:

- For minor violations, the staff person may simply ask the patron to comply with the rule.

- For serious violations (including disruptive behavior and failure to comply when requested) and for repeated violations, the staff person may require the person to leave the library premises and not return the same day.
- Any instance of serious violation shall be reported to the library director or designee, who shall decide whether an additional sanction is appropriate. First time offenders will be excluded from the library for a period of 30 days. Second offenses carry an exclusion for 90 days and third a violation carries an exclusion for 180 days. In certain situations permanent exclusion may be applied.
- Any criminal activity shall be reported to the City police department or to 911.

To suspend library privileges, the Library Director or designee shall send notice of the suspension and exclusion from library property by first class mail or hand delivery to the person to be suspended and excluded. The Library Director or designee shall send the notice to the address provided by the person to obtain a library card, or to any other address the library may have for the person. Personal delivery of the notice is sufficient, whether or not the library has an address for the person. A copy of the exclusion notice shall be sent to the police department.

The exclusion shall be effective seven days from mailing or personal service of the notice.

Failure to leave or re-entering the library property prior to termination of a suspension will be deemed to constitute a trespass.

When persons under the age of 18 have been excluded, they must meet with library staff to discuss their behavior before the exclusion will be terminated.

Persons wishing to appeal an exclusion may appeal by submitting a written appeal to the City Manager within seven days of receiving a notice. The exclusion period shall not begin until the appeal is resolved. If the exclusion period has started before the appeal is filed, library privileges and the right to enter library property will be reinstated until the decision on appeal. The City Manager or designee will then hear the appeal within one week of receipt of the appeal. The City Manager's decision shall be final.

5.11 POLICIES GOVERNING THE TEEN ROOM

5.11.1 Purpose and Philosophy

The Newport Public Library Teen Room is specifically designed for the use of middle school, high school, and home school students in accordance with our mission to provide personalized service to patrons of all ages. Youth services librarians use an understanding of teen needs and developmental stages to foster positive relationships with teens who use the Teen Room. In addition, they select materials, activities, and programs for the breadth of the twelve through eighteen-year-old age group. All library staff strive to maintain the room as a safe and supportive space for teens, treat all teens fairly and respectfully, and apply behavior guidelines calmly and consistently.

5.11.2 Age Guidelines

The Teen Area of the Library is reserved for young adults – ages 12 through 18. Unaccompanied adults may only enter the Teen Area to obtain books or other teen materials. Extended browsing, reading or loitering in the Teen Area by unaccompanied adults is not allowed. Out of concern for the safety of teens, it is Library policy to ask unaccompanied adults to move to another area of the Library.

5.11.3 Behavior Guidelines and Consequences

All behavior requirements found under Newport Library Policy 5.10 apply in the Teen Room. However, staff recognizes the Teen Room may be a more boisterous environment, with noise comparable to a Library program when in full use. Overall, we expect teens to treat each other, the space, the staff, the materials and other patrons with respect. Inappropriate physical contact will not be allowed. Repeated problem behaviors may result in exclusion from the Teen Room and the Library. Any behavior considered by the staff to be abusive, hostile, or aggressive may result in the police being notified and further appropriate actions being taken. Vandalism or damage to Library property or to Library grounds will also result in exclusion from the Teen Room and Library and the police being notified. Just as in the rest of the library, when library staff become aware that any patron is violating a library rule in the Teen Room, staff will take appropriate enforcement measures, which include:

- For minor violations, the staff person or security personnel will inform the teen(s) of the rule and calmly ask the teen(s) to comply with the rule.
- For more serious violations (including disruptive behavior and failure to comply when requested) and for repeated violations, the staff person or security personnel may require the person to leave the library premises for the remainder of the day, using a respectful and calm tone.
- Any instance of serious violation shall be reported to the library director or designee, who shall decide whether an additional sanction is appropriate. First time offenders will be excluded from the library for a period of 30 days. Second offenses carry an exclusion for 90 days and third a violation carries an exclusion for 180 days. In certain situations permanent exclusion may be applied.
- Any criminal activity shall be reported to the City police department or to 911.

5.11.4 Gaming Guidelines

In its ongoing effort to provide services and programs that encourage teens to utilize the Library, the Newport Library Teen Room has dedicated space and equipment for gaming. Recognizing the ongoing popularity of video gaming and the social benefits that result from gaming activities, the Library has provided a Playstation 4 gaming system.

In order to use the gaming equipment, teens must:

- have an Oceanbooks library card, visitor card, or honor card in good standing

- read and agree to gaming system rules before using the equipment:
- use equipment in the manner intended
- take responsibility for any damage incurred by misuse of equipment
- not use outside games or controllers with Library Playstation
- end session when requested to do so by Library staff for any reason
- keep volume and voices at an acceptable level
- not use foul, abusive, disruptive or otherwise inappropriate language or actions
- report problems to Library Staff

Gaming will end half an hour before the Library closes, and game play shall be limited to one sixty-minute session, which may be extended up to a total of 120 minutes if no one else is waiting.

The Newport Public Library is committed to continuously improving the volunteer program. Volunteers will have opportunities to provide feedback on their experience through surveys or interviews, and their suggestions will be considered for program development. Periodic evaluations will also be conducted to assess the effectiveness of the program.

7. ADULT OUTREACH SERVICES POLICY

MISSION AND PURPOSE

The mission of Outreach Services at Newport Public Library is to provide equitable access to library materials and services for adults who are unable to visit the library due to physical, medical, or institutional limitations. Outreach Services uphold the Library's commitment to equity, diversity, inclusion, and access by ensuring that all community members can benefit from resources that promote lifelong learning and enrichment, as outlined in the Newport Public Library Strategic Plan 2025–2030.

PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

Materials available through Outreach Services include regular print and large print books, audiobooks on CD, DVDs, music CDs, magazines, and interlibrary loan materials. Applications to the Talking Book and Braille Library are available upon request.

Outreach Services follow the same policies and procedures as the Library, with additional accommodations to meet the unique needs of eligible individuals and partner facilities.

The designated service area for Adult Outreach Services at the Newport Public Library includes the city limits of Newport, the unincorporated areas south of Lincoln City and north of Waldport, and areas west of Toledo within Lincoln County. This defined geographic region outlines where the library may offer adult outreach programming, resources, and support.

7.1 SERVICES TO RESIDENTIAL CARE FACILITIES

Outreach staff provide regularly scheduled visits to nursing homes, assisted living facilities, senior care centers, senior apartment complexes, and adult group homes. Services may include browsing hours, room-to-room visits, or curated collections based on resident interests. Residents may request specific titles or choose from a selection brought by the staff. Library staff are responsible for selecting and maintaining these materials. The check-out period for items is 1 month.

7.2 INDIVIDUAL HOMEDELIVERY SERVICE

Adults eligible for home delivery must be homebound due to age, illness, disability, or recovery for a minimum of three consecutive months. An application interview will assess eligibility and reading/listening preferences. Patrons with an existing library account must be in good standing; if fines or fees exist, they must be resolved prior to enrollment. A library card will be issued if needed. Requests for material(s) can be made by phone, online catalog, or during scheduled visits.

RESPONSIBILITIES

7.3 PARTNER FACILITY RESPONSIBILITIES

Residential Care Facilities are expected to collaborate in the return of loaned materials. If items are damaged or lost, and the responsible resident is financially able, the library may seek reimbursement. Materials loaned to facilities are for use within the residence and not for personal use by staff or visitors. If a resident is discharged, materials must be returned to the facility's library liaison before departure.

7.4 INDIVIDUAL HOME DELIVERY PARTICIPANT RESPONSIBILITIES

Home delivery patrons are responsible for returning items on time or requesting renewals. They are accountable for fees associated with lost or damaged items. If a patron's condition improves and they can visit the Library, they must notify staff so their account can be updated to regular borrowing privileges. AMERICAN LIBRARY ASSOCIATION'S BILL OF RIGHTS, FREEDOM TO READ, FREEDOM TO VIEW, AND LABELING STATEMENTS

The Newport Public Library Advisory Board endorses the American Library Association's Bill of Rights, Freedom to Read, Freedom to View and Statement of Labeling. To wit:

Library Bill of Rights

The American Library Association affirms that all libraries are forums for information and ideas, and that the following basic policies should guide their services.

1. Books and other library resources should be provided for the interest, information and enlightenment of all people of the community the library serves. Materials should not be excluded because of the origin, background, or views of those contributing to their creation.
2. Libraries should provide materials and information presenting all points of view on current and historical issues. Materials should not be proscribed or removed because of partisan or doctrinal disapproval.
3. Libraries should challenge censorship in the fulfillment of their responsibility to provide information and enlightenment.
4. Libraries should cooperate with all persons and groups concerned with resisting abridgment of free expression and free access to ideas.
5. A person's right to use a library should not be denied or abridged because of origin, age, background, or views.
6. Libraries which make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use.

[Adopted June 18, 1948. Amended February 2, 1961, June 27, 1967, and January 23, 1980, inclusion of "age" reaffirmed January 23, 1996, by the ALA Council]

Freedom to Read

1. It is in the public interest for publishers and librarians to make available the widest diversity of views and expressions, including those which are unorthodox or unpopular with the majority. Publishers, librarians and booksellers do not need to endorse every idea or presentation contained in the books they make available. It would conflict with the public interest for them to establish their own political, moral or aesthetic views as a standard for determining what books should be published or circulated.
2. It is contrary to the public interest for publishers or librarians to determine the acceptability of a book on the basis of the personal history or political affiliations of the author.
3. There is no place in our society for efforts to coerce the taste of others, to confine adults to the reading matter deemed suitable for adolescents, or to inhibit the efforts of writers to achieve artistic expression.
4. It is not in the public interest to force a reader to accept with any book the prejudgment of a label characterizing the book or author as subversive or dangerous.

5. It is the responsibility of publishers and librarians, as guardians of the peoples' freedom to read, to contest encroachments upon that freedom by individuals or groups seeking to impose their own standards or tastes upon the community at large.
6. It is the responsibility of publishers and librarians to give full meaning to the freedom to read by providing books that enrich the quality and diversity of thought and expression.
7. By the exercise of this affirmative responsibility, they can demonstrate that the answer to a bad book is a good one, the answer to a bad idea is a good one.

Adopted June 25, 1953; revised January 28, 1972, January 16, 1991, by the ALA Council and the AAP Freedom to Read Committee.

Freedom to View

1. To provide the broadest access to film, video, and other audiovisual materials because they are a means for the communication of ideas. Liberty of circulation is essential to insure the constitutional guarantee of freedom of expression.
2. To protect the confidentiality of all individuals and institutions using film, video, and other audiovisual materials.
3. To provide film, video, and other audiovisual materials which represent a diversity of views and expression. Selection of a work does not constitute or imply agreement with or approval of the content.

Statement on Labeling

An Interpretation of the Library Bill of Rights

Labeling is the practice of describing or designating certain library materials by affixing a prejudicial label to them or segregating them by a prejudicial system. The American Library Association opposes this as a means of predisposing people's attitudes towards library materials for the following reasons:

1. Labeling is an attempt to prejudice attitudes and as such, it is a censor's tool.
2. Some find it easy and even proper according to their ethics, to establish criteria for judging publications as objectionable. However, injustice and ignorance rather than justice and enlightenment result from such practices, and the American Library Association opposes the establishment of such criteria.
3. Libraries do not advocate the ideas found in their collections. The presence of books and other resources in a library does not indicate an endorsement of their contents by the library.
